

Peace Corps Night

Join us for our famous International Potluck, RPCV Talk on Clean Cook Stoves, Award-winning PCV videos, and a Raffle!

Saturday, July 29, 6pm- 8pm

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Raleigh (Founders Hall), 3313 Wade Ave, Raleigh, 27607

Calling all RPCV's and guests!

Every year we celebrate Peace Corps Night with a fabulous potluck and raise funds to benefit a serving NC Peace Corps volunteer's project. AND enter a drawing for 3-4 days at a rustic mountain cabin near Galax, VA.

This is always the BEST and MOST DIVERSE potluck you will find anywhere! Bring a dish from your country of service (or something else) to share, and friends! Click here for more info.

Admission $10, BYOB, please RSVP by July 21 to BobWinCarrboroNC@aol.com.

You'll enjoy 40-minutes of prize-winning Peace Corps videos from 2016 with a theme of Hospitality. AND Jim Jetter, RPCV (Fiji 1982-1984) will give a short talk about clean cook stoves called, "Cleaner Cookstoves to Protect Global Human Health & the Environment".

Join us for Peace Corps Night July 29!
