

THE NORTH CAROLINA PEACE CORPS ASSOCIATION'S CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR THE ### 2019 NORTH CAROLINA PEACE PRIZE

The North Carolina Peace Corps Association (NCPCA) North Carolina Peace Prize was established in 1998 to honor small North Carolina community-based, non-profit groups that honor the values of the Peace Corps: helping people to help themselves and promoting peace and cross-cultural understanding. The prize consists of a $1,000 check, a hand-thrown vase from Seagrove, NC, and recognition at a ceremony in the early spring that is open to the community. The prize is limited to 501c3 non-profit organizations with annual operating expenses of $1,000,000 or less.

Interested parties should send the following information no later than December 31, 2018 to the Peace Prize Committee at ncpeacecorps@gmail.com.

- Name and Address of Group:
- Website (if applicable):
- Organization Contact Person's Name and Position:
- Telephone No.
- E-mail address:

- Nominator's Name and Affiliation with Group (self-nominations are permitted)
- Telephone No.
- E-mail address:

Rationale: Please explain in 800 words or less why you believe the organization deserves the NC Peace Prize. This should address how the organization helps people to help themselves and promotes peace and cross-cultural understanding within North Carolina. In addition to the organization's history of work, please include specific accomplishments of the group within the past year.

- Budget information: Please submit income/expense statements for the last 2 years and a copy of the most recently completed IRS Form 990.
- Letters of Support & Additional Information: Two (2) letters of support from members/organization participants OR one (1) letter of support from member and copy of articles about organization in an NC publication within last 2 years. We prefer letters from individual program participants rather than staff or board members.

NOTE: Previous winners will not be considered for a second prize. Previous applicants who were not chosen are welcome to apply again. For a list of past winners please see <http://ncpeacecorps.org/activities/peace-prize/>.